THANKSGIVING.

Proclamation by the President of the United States.

In accordance with a practice, at one time and to a limited extent, has been continued, at the year is drawing to a close, a general resolution to an humble expression of thanks to Almighty God for countless and distinguished benefits bestowed upon us as a nation, and for His mercies and protection during the closing year. Amid the rich and free enjoyment of all our advantages, we should not forget the source from whence they are derived, and, therefore, our obligation to the Father of All Mercies. We have full reason to renew our thanks to Almighty God for favors bestowed upon us during the past year. By His continuing mercy, civil and religious liberty have been maintained, peace has reigned within our borders, labor and enterprise have produced their natural fruits, and to the watchful providence we are indebted for security from pestilence and other national calamities. Apart from the other national blessings, each individual among us has occasion to thoughtfully recall and devoutly recognize the favors and protection which He has bestowed.

Now, therefore, I, Ulysses S. Grant, President of the United States, do recommend that on TUESDAY, THE 25TH DAY OF NOVEMBER, the people of the United States, from their accustomed vocations, in assemble in their respective places of worship, and in such form as may seem most appropriate in their own hearts, offer to Almighty God their acknowledgments and thanks for all His mercies, and their humble prayers for the continuance of His divine favor. In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington, this 27th day of October, in the year of our Lord 1865, and of the Independence of the United States the one hundredth.

(Signed) U. S. GRANT, President.
HAMILTON FISH, Secretary of State.

THE RESULT.

Amid such an avalanche of good news as is presented in our telegraphic columns it is almost a work of superfluous to add any comments of our own, and yet we feel a good deal like pointing with a pardonable pride to the magnificent column of victories for Republicanism and honest government. In New York the thin veneering of respectability which Tilden's influence gave to the Democratic ticket was not sufficient to hide the tawdry air of Tammany which pervaded the whole contrivance, and both went down together. In Pennsylvania the record of disloyalty which Pershing could not wipe out of his history served to rebuke him to the shadow of private life, and the gallant Hackett is to be governor of the Keystone state for another term. In Massachusetts partisans Bickerings communists and blatherskites proved insufficient for the purposes of Democracy, and the old Bay State again wheels into line and says that one "departure" is all she wants. Even New Jersey—the heretofore stronghold of Democracy—comes up smiling from the dust of the battle, with a Republican legislature. Wisconsin, too, has had enough of sham reform, and the potty peculator, Taylor, goes back to his farm to ponder over the uncertainties which pertain to all sublunary things—politics in particular. Minnesota, also, gives her accustomed Republican majority, and retains her place among the states which show by their acts that they are not in the retrograde movement.

In Illinois, where there were no state offices to elect, the chief interest centered on the contest in Chicago and Cook county, where the Republican candidate for county treasurer, Huck, was supported by nearly the entire respectable element of the city and county, and it is eloquent to every lover of honest government to know that the leader of the "opposition," A. C. Hesing, who was backed by the thieves, gamblers, bummers and gutter-snipes, and sympathized with by the bogus "Reform" party of the state—we say it is cheering to know that this advocate of ballot box stuffing was beaten by several thousand, and that he has received such a rebuke as ought to send him into retirement forever.

In Mason county the result is more gratifying than we even dared to hope for, and we take an immense deal of satisfaction in referring to the tabular returns in to-day's paper. Mr. Park, when the clerk into business was first agitated, superciliously advised us to go on stirring up the matter, saying "it will do me more good than harm." The sequel proves that he vastly under-estimated the good sense and intelligence of the people, who have, in the most emphatic manner possible, placed their seal of condemnation upon him and his acts. In his own township, Friends Creek, where he received a majority of 91 two years ago, Mr. Wood yes to-day received a majority of 21. This remarkable change is almost equalled by that in the outside townships, as a whole. Two years ago Mr. Park's majority in the townships outside of Decatur was 1300—yesterday, in the same townships, his majority was less than 100. By this time, probably, he has concluded that the clerk hire matter was not calculated to do him as much good as he foolishly pretended to believe it would. But we do not desire to convince him that there is a punishment after death, as that is the peculiar province of the clergy, and we shall therefore not wound him any longer.

Looking over the entire field upon which the battle of yesterday was fought Republicans have the best and most substantial reasons for feeling jubilant, and it is not unreasonable for them to look upon their victory as a bright omen of the success which is to crown their efforts in the centennial year of our national life.

A NEW TICKET.—"Milt" Lowry has a new ticket for next year, as follows: For President, Fred. W. Seward, of New York; for Vice President, George M. Wood, of Illinois. He says Fred can carry New York and George can carry Illinois, and anybody who can do that can do anything.

THE DEAD LETTER RECORD of the post office department is curious and suggestive. The number received last year was 3,610,707. Of these 3,307,018 were destroyed. Many of those had in them money or other valuables. The nominal value was $3,540,993.44. Of those actual and nominal values all was returned, except about $375,000, and of that amount less than $50,000 represented actual value. The explanation of this shrinkage is that of the total nominal value, $3,469,826.75 were checks, drafts or bills of exchange. In making payment by mail one should always send either a postal money order, check, draft or bill of exchange. It is the only safe and sensible way of making a remittance by mail.

CLIPPINGS FROM THE DECATUR TRIBUNE
Before the Election.

"I always vote the Republican ticket," said a gentleman this morning, "but Park has made an excellent offer, and had we not better let well enough alone?"

Everything looks encouraging for electing the Independent ticket, tomorrow. Let every one opposed to the Republican dynasty turn out and vote for Park and Sherrick.

Three weeks ago the court house ring was confident of success. To-day they have about given up any hope, although they keep up the fight, and will spend their $500 and do their best.

Mr. Park is a quiet man, who attends to his own business, and does not join the crusaders one day and subdivide the saloons the next. In other words, he does not carry water on both shoulders.

The ballot-stuffing, vote-buying ring are very busy trying to keep certain men in their stores lest they work for Park. They offer excellent wages. They are flush just now and want to charge with their $500—$8.

We learn from reliable men in different parts of the country, that the farmers are getting waked up, and will turn out and vote. We hope this will be the case all over the country. If it is Park will receive a large majority.

"I have always voted for Wood when he came up for office heretofore," said a gentleman of this city to us this morning, "but he has been in office long enough—either as principal or deputy, this year I shall vote for Park, who has made a good officer, and deserves a second term, when he ought to step aside."

Wood, we understand, is making his brag that he is going to carry the old Democratic vote in his interest. We think that is a pretty good joke on the old Democrats, but we have often heard of fellow countrymen their chickens for they was hatched. Wood, too, may have been enumerating his foibles before they were incubated. It is mighty uncertain counting on an old Democrat going for the regular nominatoe of the Republican party. Look over your figures again brother Wood.

Wood usually flatters, but this piece has become water-soaked and will go to the bottom. And everybody, too, is laughing to see the frantic efforts of the court house ring to float their Wood. So, it sinketh, and will be drowned, and we will have a funeral of the deputy health, court house ring and foolish wind-dashy party on Tuesday next. You know the chairman of the central committee of the etc. party, is in the collin business and is furnishing the coffin at first cost.

A MAN in a neighboring county who wished to write a history of his family, was unable to obtain the necessary material; but when he got nominated for Congress, the opposition paper furnished him a complete history of the time for generations back, and didn't charge him a cent. But he says he doesn't believe his great great grandfather was hung for stealing a sheep, as stated in the paper.

TELEGRAPHIC.

3 O'Clock, P. M.
[Reported Expressly for the Daily Republican.]

OH HAVE YOU HEARD THE NEWS?

THE ELECTIONS.

A Bad Day for the Bogus Reformers.

NEW YORK CAPTURED BY THE REPUBLICANS.

And Massachusetts Likewise.

PENNSYLVANIA REPUDIATES THE COPPER-HEAD.

Wisconsin has had Enough of Reform.

MINNESOTA FOLLOWS THE EXAMPLE OF THE OTHERS.

And New Jersey has a Republican Legislature.

THE "DEVIL-FISH TICKET" BEATEN IN CHICAGO.

And Boss Hesing Mustered Out.

Not a Very Good Day for Scapins, Either.

New York, Nov. 2.—Returns from 100 districts in the interior, show rep gains of 2,100. Present indications are that Bigelow will not go out of the city with over 25,000 men. The Tammany ticket is defeated in the city by a decided maj. Morrisey will be elected by 1,200 maj. The rep gains of the large towns yet in.

Later returns from various parts of the state do not change the various estimates, but do not give a basis for close calculation. The republican state ticket is undoubtedly elected, with the exception of state treasurer. This is uncertain. Reps do not claim over 5,000 maj. It is impossible to make a close estimate of the legislature, but it will be largely republican.

LEAVENWORTH, Nov. 11.—The whole Republican county ticket is probably elected by about 300 majority. No returns received from the state and nothing can be given in regard to the result to night.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 2.—Seventy wards give Carroll, for governor, 15,296 majority. The majority for the balance of the state ticket is about the same. Three remaining wards probably give small democratic majorities.

BLOOMINGTON, Nov. 2.—There is great excitement here to-night over the election. The vote polled was medium in numbers. The Independents made a desperate effort, especially in the city, but the entire republican ticket is elected by a probable majority of from 200 to 800. This elects Isaac Strand, treasurer; Wm. H. Smith, of Normal school, superintendent, and George P. Ely, surveyor, as against J. H. Lewis of Hudson, C. P. Mariman and C. H. Merchant, a remarkable republican gain over the election two years ago.

Mr. Beecher ended by asking his congregation to pray for the revivalists.

REFLECTING man of Italy say that when the Emperor of Germany and the King of Italy both avoid Rome and hold a meeting at Milan, in order to escape the presence of the Pope, as in the recent conference of the two potentates, there is trouble sure to arise in the near future. These thinkers are in a position to judge of the situation existing between Church and State in their country, and as the views of King Victor Emmanuel are known to conflict with the tendencies of the Vatican quite as strongly as do those of King William, their fears of a coming struggle seem well grounded.

GREENLAND DOGS.

Two of these dogs can drag as much as one man. Nothing can be more exhilarating than dog-sledding in the Arctic regions on a fine day. The rattling pace of the dogs, their intelligence in choosing the road through the broken ice, the strict obedience paid by the team to the powerful dog when they elect as leader; the arbitrary exercise of authority by the master dog; the constant use of the whip, and the running conversation kept up by the driver with the different dogs, who well know their names, afford constant enjoyment. However useful they may be, the Arctic dogs seem to be deficient in that affectionate disposition which endears the species so much to man.

A traveler once said that he believed the Eskimos to be the most ungrateful creatures in creation. He said the Eskimos to be the most ungrateful creatures in creation. He said the Eskimos to be the most ungrateful creatures in creation. He said the Eskimos to be the most ungrateful creatures in creation.

QUEBEC, Nov. 2.—During the gale and snow-storm of Sunday, an accident, by which about seventy persons lost their lives, occurred at St. Pauline, in the Isle of Orleans.

The people, who were principally residents of the island, were returning from market, and were being landed from a steamer in a sloop, which capsized, and all on board, with one exception, were drowned.

During the same gale, John Campbell, the chief officer of the steamer California, and a laborer were drowned.

HARRISBURG, Oct. 2.—The city gives Harris 100, rep., 500 maj., a gain of 300.

PHILADELPHIA—Chester City gives Hartnett 470 maj. Unofficial returns from 26 wards in this city give Hartnett 12,834 maj. The five remaining wards to be heard from are rep. It is estimated that Hartnett's maj. will be 15,000.

PHILADELPHIA—Cumberland county gives Pershing 800 maj., a gain of 105; Columbia county gives 1,800 dom. maj., a loss of 320; Lebanon county gives Hartnett 1,200 maj., a gain of 102; Susquehanna county gives Hartnett 700 maj., a rep. gain of 41; Centre county gives Pershing 1,400 maj., a democratic gain of 135; Hamilton county gives Pershing about 300 maj., a dom. gain of 551.

In the election today, for county officers, thirty-seven out of eighty-two precincts in the city, give 8,998 for Huck, republican candidate for treasurer; 6856 for Hesing, the opposition candidate, and 2,927 Kooley independent democrat.

Later reports from forty precincts in the city and nine towns, show the following vote: Huck, 11,974; Hesing, 8,690; Kooley, 3,903. Huck's plurality, 3,885.

11:15 a. m.—Full returns from all the wards in this city give Hartnett, for governor, a maj. of 17,352. The opposition ticket polled 631 votes. The republicans also elect their entire county ticket.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 3, 2:10 a. m.—Col. McClure concedes the state to Hartnett by 22,000 maj. Outside of Philadelphia the vote will be very close.

3 a. m.—Ninety seven counties foot up 20,751 maj. for Hartnett.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 2.—Returns from 36 towns and precincts give Taylor, dem. reform candidate for governor, 386 maj., a rep. gain of 4,755.

Taylor's majority is 727, a rep. gain of 5,626, in this city and sixty towns.

The rep state ticket is undoubtedly elected.

One hundred and forty towns give 11,420 maj., a rep. gain of 1,802. Milwaukee is probably elected by from 3,000 to 5,000, but the balance of the rep tickets is in great doubt.

The chairman of the rep state central committee, telegraphs to the Sentinel: "I have no doubt of the success of our whole ticket. The democrats concede the election of Hartnett."

BEECHER ON MOODY AND SANKEY.

New York World, 9th.

Mr. Beecher talked of the revivalists at his prayer-meeting last night. He characterized the revival as one of the greatest marvels of the age, coming, as it does, at a time when the minds of men are engrossed in political and commercial affairs, and in the midst of a storm of excitement. He thought that for people to account for the excitement and deep feeling created, and to tell what Moody and Sankey do to work such conversions in the hearts of men, was like simply looking at a pane of window-glass and wondering what the beautiful objects to be seen behind it were. It was the power of God to bind Moody and Sankey that did the work. Mr. Beecher did not think that Mr. Moody was a man of brilliant parts, he did not credit him with scholarly language, nor extreme originality. Like Paul, he relied simply upon Christ. One reason for the intense feeling was the multitude of people brought together. A multitude magnified the power of an individual. Six men could feel more together than six men separately. A multitude stimulated by one feeling would feel more intensely on that subject than a scattering congregation. The old revivalists used to begin by leading their audiences through the deep sea of theology, unfolding the why and the wherefore, and concluding with exhortation. Mr. Moody plunged into his subject at once. The hymns sung by the revivalists were all of a loving style or treating character, instead of damnable. The principal reason why the revival was proving so successful, he thought was on account of the condition of the country. Times were hard, men had been broken on the wheel of fortune. Every one had his longing and craving for sympathy in adversity. "Now, give these men the thought that God cares for them, and is everything to them," said Mr. Beecher, "and why shouldn't they be converted?" He thought that the number of persons converted was not so large as might be expected, but the number should be sufficient to leaven the whole Brooklyn lump.

Mr. Beecher ended by asking his congregation to pray for the revivalists.
